Pastors Converse At Dedication

Methodist pastors of Memorial United Methodist Church and the district superintendent, the Rev. J.W. Mast (center) enjoyed visiting with church members and friends and with each other during dedication services and social hour Sunday marking the dedication of Memorial United Methodist Church. Mr. Mast delivered the morning sermon with services conducted by the present pastor, the Rev. A. L. Eastman (2nd from left). Former pastors include the Rev. R. A. Bergdoll (far left), now of Sedley, Va.; the Rev. F. M. Lucas (2nd from right), of Appomattox; and the Rev. Forrest M. Wagoner, (far right), now of Richmond. The dedication marked the end of all indebtedness for Memorial, a total of more than $150,000. A sumptuous dinner followed the dedication service.

Cake Enough For 500

There was cake enough for 500 people as members and guests of Memorial United Methodist Church, Appomattox, prepared to enjoy this beautiful cake topped by a replica of their church. Memorial members dedicated their church Sunday to mark the end of all indebtedness on the sanctuary and educational building built in 1962. The cake and church replica are the work of Mrs. George Parana, of Farmville. The church replica will be put on permanent display.

GLADSTONE

Thought for the Week:
"Whatever your past has been You can have a spotless future."

Guest last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Carmody were their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Carmody from Atlanta, Ga. Dewaye Carmody, student at VPI, spent the week end in the same home.

We were sorry to hear of the death Sunday of Mrs. Joe Megginson's father, Mr. John Torrence, of Crewe. We extend Christian sympathy to the family.

A Field Committee meeting was held Sunday night at 7:30 at Gladstone Memorial Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Smoot, of Lynchburg, were Sunday guests of Mr. Smoot's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burke Smoot. Mr. Paul Bugg, of Appomattox, visited also.

Mrs. Elizabeth Watts, Kathy and Clarence, of Manassass, Va., were week end guests of Mrs. Watts' mother, Mrs. Bell Mundy.

The W.M.S. President's business meeting was held at the home of Mrs. William Agee on Sunday evening. The following presidents were present: Mrs. W. T. Chaudham from Liberty Chapel Church; Mrs. Bobbie Bryan from Chestnut Grove; Mrs. William Agee from Union Church; Mrs. Pauline Gunter from Pleasant Grove Church; and Mrs. Kate Jones from Gladstone Memorial Church. Mrs. Beal Wallace and Mrs. Lonnie Reynolds were guests, also.

Mr. Royal Moore has returned to his home after spending several months in the University of Virginia Hospital in Charlottesville. Friends and neighbors are glad he is home and feeling good.

Mrs. Russell Moore and Vicki visited Mrs. Ronnie Spiggle in Appomattox on Saturday.

The community was saddened on Sunday by the death of Mr. Oscar Robertson. We extend sympathy to the family.

The Men's Bible Class of Gladstone Memorial Church had Sunday morning breakfast at the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Synder and Gina Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. George Brown and G.C., Mrs. Julia Brown, all from Lynchburg; Mrs. Ronnie Spiggle from Appomattox, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Spiggle.

Miss Julia Hesson spent the week end in Roanoke at the Virginia Beta Convention held at Hotel Roanoke.

Attend Dedication

Six of the nine living children of the late J. Holmes Martin were among the more than 500 persons who attended the dedication service Sunday of Memorial United Methodist Church. Mr. and Mrs. Martin were life-long members of the church. Their children (standing above), are Carrie Smith (Mrs. Roland); Jack Martin, Tressie Ferguson (Mrs. Wade); Wesley Martin and Blanche Day (Mrs. Emmett.) At the front are Dick (Albert) Martin and Eva Mayberry (Mrs. Willie.) Mrs. Day, Mrs. Mayberry and Dick Martin are all members of Memorial. The J. Holmes Martins had nine children. A daughter, Lula, died when she was two and one-half years old and a son, Floyd, died in 1954. Mr. Jack Martin said that the children attended the ceremonies on Sunday partly as a tribute to their parents life-long devotion to church and to the progress and development of Memorial United Methodist.

INTERMEDIATE 4-H CLUB

The Appomattox Intermediate 4-H Club met March 16. The meeting was opened by president Hal Smith. Pledges to flags were led by Frances Chernault and Judy Watson. New projects were passed out. Cindy Guill received a trophy for first place in the Public Speaking contest. James Watkins received a silver platter for a hog he entered in a hog show. We are very proud of our 4-H members. Share-the-fun will be held April 7. Time has Time has been set. Senior 4-H camp will be held June 10-14. A silm strip was shown entitled "Our Money System." The meeting was then adjourned.

Coffee Hour For Volunteers

A coffee hour was held recently in the library, Appomattox Primary School, to honor the more than thirty local women who have served and are serving as volunteer workers in the school. For teachers and teacher aides, the work of the volunteers means that each child gets a little more individual attention. Many routine procedures are completed by the volunteers and Mrs. Jean Hesson terms their work "invaluable" to the ongoing progress of the school. In the photo above (from left): Barbara Caldwell, Betty Blanks, Shelby McFaden, David Blanks, Julia Wingfield, Peggy Lewis, Marilyn Harris, Loretta Mayberry, Nell Drinkard and Virginia Franklin. Other volunteers include Carolyn Davis, Peggy Clark, Peggy Guill, Patsy Woodson, Irene Brooks, Mrs. E. W. Marshall, Ruby Ferguson Mrs. Tom Davidson, Mrs. John Ferguson, Mrs. Wayne Terry, Mrs. Coyte Riley, Mrs. Richard Harrison, Mrs. Betty Franklin, Mrs. Shirley Turner, Mrs. John Paulette, Mrs. James Paulette, and Mrs. Nancy Elder. Others who have served include Mrs. Roberts Womack, Mrs. Dianne Ferguson, Mrs. Robert Winston, Mrs. Albert Moore and Mrs. Rebecca Smith.

Mrs. Byron Cole is in Richmond attending the Annual Conference of the Southern Association on Children Under Six. The conference runs from Mar. 22 to Mar. 25 at the John Marshall Hotel. Mrs. Cole is in charge of Cole's Private Kindergarten in Appomattox.
